From CRHP Manual

Jesus came to a lot of sleepy people. They were safe and secure in their practices and observances, but for some the echo of a promise kept alive the suspicion that there was more to come. He found them. He was the promise. There was more to come. They came and saw.

We attended Mass, had our confessions heard, paid our dues, and knew there was much more. But—we had no need to be “born again”, we were converted, we were born Catholics; we had no need to be “saved”, we had the Sacraments; we had no need to read the bible, we heard it on Sundays; we had no need to grow in our faith, we went to parochial schools; we didn't need the Holy Spirit, we were confirmed; we had no need to be holy, we were lay people; we had no further need to lay down our lives, we went to the seminary, to the convent. We had no need for anything, except that New Life—that Abundant Life that was promised us.

This is the primary and principal personal experience of a “CRHP” weekend of renewal at a parish. Indeed, it is the very reason why such an experience was conceived, initiated and continues in parishes. The reason why parishioners are invited to make a Renewal Weekend is to provide them with the environment and opportunity in which a person may respond more fully and totally to the Lord’s call to a deep and personal relationship with Him.
