The Stations of the Cross

The 14 Stations of the Cross are displayed in every Roman Catholic Church. These stations serve as points for meditation on the Passion of Our Lord. Begun by pilgrims to the Holy Land and spread by St. Francis of Assisi, this meditation on the Stations of the Cross is a good way to reflect on the cost of our salvation in Christ, on our sins that made that salvation necessary, and on the love of Jesus for us.

The Church urges us to pray the Stations of the Cross and meditate on the Passion of Jesus. In fact, one can gain an indulgence through the pious meditation on the Stations of the Cross in a church. If one is alone, one should move from station to station. If the Stations are being celebrated publicly, the gathered group does not need to move from station to station.
