Diocese of Dallas

Office of Vocations

Dear Alex,

I write to inform you that you have now been officially accepted as a seminarian for the Diocese of Dallas! Following your successful completion of the seminary application material and necessary requirements therein, the Diocesan Seminarian Admissions Board met earlier today to review and discuss your application and voted unanimously in favor of your final acceptance. The diocese is very pleased to have you begin seminary formation this coming fall!

Blessings,

Reverend John M. Szatkowski, Director

Congratulations to Alex on his acceptance to seminary!

Such willingness to explore a vocation is not just a fruit of his individual love of God but of a family & parish environment that makes such a love of God possible and such a vocation thinkable. So thank you also, St. John Parish!

*From the

“Today, our whole diocese comes together to celebrate, honor and give thanks to what I call the backbone of the Catholic Church: those who tend to the flock of God, those so many volunteers who do so much work,” Bishop Farrell said. “We honor all of those people who have made our church what it is today: a vibrant, Catholic and living church in every corner of this city. You are the agents of our church today of the New Evangelization. You are commissioned to make our church work.”

“The Gospel is the real antidote to spiritual destitution:

Wherever we go, we are called as Christians to proclaim the liberating news that forgiveness for sins committed is possible, that God is greater than our sinfulness, that He freely loves us at all times and that we were made for communion and eternal life.

The Lord asks us to be joyous heralds of this message of mercy and hope.”

Pope Francis
