COMMUNION AT THE BACK OF CHURCH

At every weekend Mass, a Eucharistic Minister goes to the back of church to give Communion to the people who cannot walk to the front of the church, and also to the people in the choir loft. We ask that you please not tie up this minister if you are able-bodied and can go to the front to receive the Eucharist.

SPONSOR OF WEEK: ADAM G. ARREDONDO, MD

PATOR

Dear Saint John and Epiphany Parishioners,

Today has traditionally been known as Good Shepherd Sunday, due to our Gospel Reading this weekend from St. John's Gospel, Chapter 10. The Church has also chosen to make this the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

The Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ, died and rose from the dead for His flock. But before He ascended back to the Father in Heaven, He commissioned His first Bishops, the Apostles, to go and continue His work on earth. He not only promised to be with them, until the end of the age, but to also dwell in them in a special way through the Sacrament of Ordination. He would continue to work on earth, in person, through His ordained Priests.

Our Roman Catholic Tradition, calls this action, "in per-sona Christi." Pope Benedict XVI, writes, "Just as in Baptism an "exchange of clothing" is given, an exchanged destination, a new existential communion with Christ, so also in priesthood there is an exchange: in the administration of the sacraments, the priest now acts and speaks "in persona Christi". In the sacred mysteries, he does not represent himself and does not speak expressing himself, but speaks for the Other, for Christ."

Every person looks for someone to "shepherd" them in life. In all situations, whether easy or difficult, we like to have a person to help guide us through. Someone who knows how to do what we are trying to do. Someone who can help us avoid the mistakes, especially the big ones. This is the role of a shepherd, to guide his flock to good things and to steer them away from harmful or dangerous things.

Jesus is the ultimate Good Shepherd, because He is also the all-powerful and all-knowing God, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity. Therefore, He is the perfect choice as each human being's shepherd through this earthly life into the life of Heaven.

Let us pray, with a special intensity this weekend, that all those who He is calling to shepherd His flock, will generously answer His invitation.

Through the intercession of St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests, may vocations be abundant to serve in the vineyard of the Risen Lord, Jesus Christ.

Love and Prayers, in Christ, the Good Shepherd,

Fr. John Pastor

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Our new Tabernacle has a medallion of a pelican on it. The pelican is an ancient Christian symbol of the Eucharist, because the pelican was thought to open its own side so that its children could feed from its blood, just as Christ feeds us with His Body and Blood. Our church has another pelican in it. Do you know where?

Congratulations to all those who received their First Holy Communion on April 15!

MIRACLES STILL EXIST

S 2012 THEME

ften times we read in scripture of hear in the Sunday Gospels some type of miracle that Jesus performed. Even though we believe what is in the Gospels we often have a tough time believing actual miracles can happen in our own life.

S

I recently watched a video on youtube entitled, "29 Years Old and Hearing Myself for the First Time." It was an amazing video of a young, 29 year old woman, who through advancement in medical technology was able to hear for the first time. Prior to this, her entire life sounded like she was underwater and could not understand anything people were saying. Fortunately for her, she did not let that keep her down, she still learned to speak, and understand people through reading lips and sign language. This video and article I read on the young woman made me stop and think....do I still believe in miracles? Through prayer the answer was clear YES! I pray that we all come to recognize the miracles that exist in our everyday life, and no matter what troubles or struggles we are experiencing miracles can and still do happen! Peace In Christ, Joey Scancella
