MASS INTENTIONS EPIPHANY MISSION, ITALY

Sunday, May 23, 9:30 am For the Epiphany Parishioners Sunday, May 30, 9:30 am For All Deceased Parishioners

SPONSOR OF WEEK: ALL ABOUT TIRES

Dear Saint John and Epiphany Parishioners,

Our Responsorial Psalm this weekend is, "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."

Sometimes we interpret this to mean that God is going to do a magic spell, send the Spirit, and everything is supposed to change and renew! Not true, not true!

The Spirit is sent from the Father and Son to dwell in us and then we through our thoughts, words and actions renew the earth! It is not magic – magic is something done to you, with or without your consent or cooperation. This is a working/love relationship with the Lord. We cooperate with His Holy Spirit and then are able to live the lives that bring renewal to our people.

That is why St. Paul reminds the Romans in our Second Reading that the Spirit of God must dwell in us for us to act like children of God. However, for the Spirit of God to dwell in us and fill us up, we must empty ourselves of the spirit of this world. The desires of the world/flesh, as St.
Paul says, keep us from pleasing God and doing His work.

This weekend, on this amazing feast of the Holy Spirit, let each one of us ask that same Holy Spirit to come and dwell within us that we might be alive with the Lord. If we are alive with the Lord, and full of the Spirit, then we are able to make the decisions and live the life that will change our world.

Come Holy Spirit into our lives!

See you in Church!
Love and prayers,

Father John
Pastor
