Corpus Christi

Dear Saint John and Epiphany Parishioners,

By the time this bulletin is in your hands and you are reading it, we will be celebrating our first "All Parish Eucharist." As I was reading over the Gospel for this weekend it seemed so appropriate that we would be gathering as a parish at one celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In our Gospel today Jesus feeds the five thousand who have gathered to see Him and hear Him speak. As impossible as it seemed to His disciples, He not only fed them but also had leftovers!

This is the God we adore! A God who is so good and loving that He always provides not only enough but always more than enough! This is why we give thanks! This is why we celebrate the Eucharist!

As we come to know our Lord Jesus and experience life in Him, we find that He is always there for us. In fact, He always prepares ahead of time for us, even though many times it seems as if He has forgotten about us. Our part is to learn to trust Him enough to turn our lives over to Him. This can only be accomplished by knowing Him as our personal Lord and Savior. This happens through prayer, adoration and our Catholic Sacramental life.

I am looking forward to this amazing time with Our Lord and our whole parish family.

See you in Church!

Love and prayers,
Father John
