Masses For The Week

Dear Saint John and Epiphany Parishioners,

Brother and Sisters, here we are at St. John Parish Bazaar Weekend!

In the Gospel of today's Mass, Jesus reminds us that we are called, as baptized Catholics, to work in His vineyard, the Church. We know that the Church is universal, so therefore, we are called to work wherever we are, at that particular place and time.

In other words, we are to "be" Catholic, by our words, thoughts and actions at all times and places! This is the primary way of "working in His vineyard!" Our own witness to the fact that being Catholic means I think, act and speak in a special way because of my Catholicism. I am to be a disciple, a follower and imitator of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Parish Bazaar is an awesome opportunity to work for the Lord in His Church. So many different ways of working are available this weekend— just ask Jeff Johnson, the Bazaar Chairman! He will make sure you have many opportunities to do His work.

We work by donating prizes and materials for the Bazaar. We work by being on the Bazaar Committee. We work by volunteering to set-up for the weekend. We work by volunteering to work a particular booth or event. We work by inviting our friends and neighbors to the Bazaar. We work by attending and participating in the various activities, and we continue to work by helping to tear down and clean-up.

If everyone does his share of work in the vineyard, then we will have an abundant harvest....the Bazaar will be a great success!

See you in Church and at the Bazaar!
Love and Prayers,

Fr. John
Pastor
