NEWS AND NOTEWORTHY

THE ABYSS OF HIS MERCY

It is not easy to entrust oneself to God's mercy, because it is an abyss beyond our comprehension. But we must! ... "Oh, I am a great sinner!" "All the better! Go to Jesus: He likes you to tell him these things!" He forgets, He has a very special capacity for forgetting. He forgets, He kisses you, He embraces you and He simply says to you: "Neither do I condemn you; go, and sin no more" (Jn 8:11). — Homily on March 17, 2013

Reflection: Do I understand the greatness of God's Mercy? Is there something I have been holding back because I am afraid my sin is too big? Or am I afraid not of His Mercy, but of his command to "go, and sin no more"? What would "sin no more" look like in my life?

Christian volunteer efforts should not merely be “an expression of good will” but should be “based on a personal experience of Christ.” ... Catholic volunteers, he said, should “not be afraid to set before them a radical and life-changing challenge” to give of themselves. It is in living selflessly, the Pope said, “that we come to live life in all its fullness.”
